

Join Councilmember Compton and Seattle Municipal Court Judges to explore real options to jailing misdemeanants.

Thursday, January 30, 2003 - Noon to 1:30 pm
Seattle City Council Chambers
11th Floor - Seattle Municipal Building – 600 Fourth Avenue

Help break the cycles of petty crime and incarceration by ensuring that those who break the law are punished fairly, and rehabilitated with solid and practical alternatives to confinement including:

- Community Service
- Work Crews
- Therapeutic Courts--Drug & Mental Health Courts
- Day Reporting
- Electronic Home Monitoring

Join Councilmember Compton, Seattle Municipal Court Judges Rietschel and Doyle, Municipal Court staff, the City Law Department staff, and community representatives to explore alternatives to confinement.

Can't make it? Watch it live by logging on to http://www.seattlechannel.org/viewer_live.htm or tune in to Seattle Channel 21/28.

Look for the second forum in this series focusing on Restorative Justice.